

Dear Parents,

The children received a talk from representatives from Crosby Food Bank yesterday in their collective worship. Thanks for all the donations which have now been collected.

Football Results

The football team won its second league match against Ursuline last Tuesday (6th October). A 3-0 win was a very good result. On Monday a Year 5 team played in the Everton FC tournament at Chesterfield school and managed three wins and three draws and conceded no goals – a great effort boys!

Netball Match v Forefield tonight

Good luck to the girls who play against Forefield tonight in a friendly match here at school.

Parents' Meeting Tomorrow Evening

Please remember that we have parents' evening tomorrow evening. We are aiming to meet with all pupils' parents over the course of the week!

Curriculum Enrichment

Year 2 are at the Safari Park today and next week Mrs Metcalfe has arranged for Lizard Lounge to come into school with a selection of lizards, amphibians etc for the children to see. Year 5 were at The Tate Gallery last week looking at The Jackson Pollock exhibition whilst Year 6 were at the Southport Vue cinema watching a film from The BBC Ten Pieces Music Initiative. Next week Year 4 are going for their two night outdoor and adventurous residential at CHET.

PTA Newsletter

You should have received a copy of the PTA newsletter

Our PTA now has its own page on Facebook to inform everybody of events, appeals and an opportunity to share new ideas for events etc. The next big event will be Fireworks Night on 5th November. Check out the page on:

School Meals

Thank you for paying school meals promptly on Mondays. Please continue to assist us with this so we can avoid sending out reminders.

Premises Development

We are developing an outdoor games and PE storage area at the edge of the playgrounds to improve our PE equipment provision in school.

Mission Day Review

Children reviewed the School's Mission Statement last Thursday in their classes and displayed some of their work around the school.

New school menu on the website

A revised school menu is on the website for your information. Please look under the Useful Information tab.

Parking

Please do not park over the entrance to the car park between the church and school as we will need to keep free access for the emergency services. Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.
